Celebrant:

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Congregation:

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sin - ners in your sight.

Celebrant:

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

Congregation:

By his blood, he re - con - ciled us. By his wounds we are healed.

Celebrant:

And therefore we praise you, | with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, | to proclaim with them | hymn:
 joining with the heavenly chorus, | and with all those in every generation | your glory, in their unending | who have looked to you in hope,

Celebrant:

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed | Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit
 by him, and made a new people by water and | to be the Body and Blood of Jesus
 the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. | Christ our Lord

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, | "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you.
 said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave | Do this for the remembrance of me."
 it to his friends, and said,

After supper, he took the cup of wine, | This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: | and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant:

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of | thanksgiving,
