Let Saints On Earth In Concert Sing  "Dundee"

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)  melody from The CL Psalms of David, 1615 harm. Thomas Ravenscroft (1592?-1635?)  fauxbourdon The Psalms of David in Prose and Meeter, 1635
Descant and Organ Part  by Paul Halley

1 Let saints on earth in concert sing with those whose work is done;
2 One family we dwell in him, one Church, above, beneath,
3 One army of the living God, to his command we bow;
4 E'en now by faith we join our hands with those that went before,

1 for all the servants of our King in heaven and earth are one.
2 though now divided by the stream, the narrow stream of death.
3 part of the host have crossed the flood, and part are crossing now.
4 and greet the ever-living bands on the eternal shore.

Descant

Jesus, be thou our constant Guide; then, when the word is given,

bid Jordan's narrow stream divide, and bring us safe to heaven.

Melody

Jesus, be thou our constant Guide; then, when the word is given,

bid Jordan's narrow stream divide, and bring us safe to heaven.

Organ

Jesus, be thou our constant Guide; then, when the word is given,

bid Jordan's narrow stream divide, and bring us safe to heaven.
