1 Come thou, Redeemer of the earth, and 2 Be gotten of no human will, but
3 Forth from his chamber go he, that
4 O equal to thy Father, thou! Gird
5 Thy cradle here shall glitter bright, and

1 manifest thy virgin birth, let every age assign
2 of the Spirit thou art still the Word of God in 3 royal home of purity, a giant in twofold
4 on thy fleshly mantle now; the weakness of our 5 darkness breath a never light, where endless faith shall

1 dawning fall; such birth befits the God of all.
2 flesh arrayed, the promised fruit to man displayed.
3 substance one, rejoicing now his course to run.
4 mortal state with deathless might in vig or ate.
5 shine serene, and twilight never inter vene.
